

Case Description – Correctional Interpretive Report

This 52-year-old male is a college graduate and was separated from his wife at the time the MMPI-2 was administered. He was evaluated in a correctional setting. He had been arrested for manufacturing and selling methamphetamine. He had one prior conviction for drug dealing 10 years earlier. He was awaiting trial. No other information is available.