

ALIGNING ACCREDITATION STANDARDS TO THE MY VOICE™ SURVEYS:

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES-HAWAII

The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), a 501(c)(3) organization, is recognized as one of six regional associations that accredit public and private schools, colleges, and universities in the United States. The Western region covers institutions in California and Hawaii, the territories of Guam, American Samoa, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of Palau, Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands, the Pacific Basin, and East Asia, and areas of the Pacific and East Asia where American/International schools or colleges may apply to it for service.

Each institution seeking WASC accreditation is evaluated on the basis of the WASC criteria and the appropriateness of the school's stated purpose, school-wide student goals and the degree to which it accomplishes these. The My Voice Surveys are an innovative tool for schools to evaluate the five criteria as well as to provide insights for overall school improvement. There are three My Voice Surveys: one for students, one for staff, and one for parents. The charts on the following pages align the five criteria with selected statements from each of the surveys. Please note this represents only a sampling of the surveys' statements. Each complete instrument can be viewed at My Voice Surveys.

Before reviewing the charts, the Fourth Criterion bears special mention. Criterion D states:

D. Standards-based Student Learning: Assessment and Accountability

- The school uses a professionally acceptable assessment process to collect, disaggregate, analyze and report student performance data to the parents and other shareholders of the community;
- Teachers employ a variety of formative and summative assessments, including student self-assessments, to evaluate student learning. Students and teachers use these findings to differentiate the teaching/learning enhancement of the educational progress of every student;
- The assessment results are the basis for regular evaluation and improvement of curriculum and instruction and the allocation and usage of resources.

Based on over twenty years of research and decades of professional experience asking students, staff, and parents about their perceptions of their school, the My Voice Survey can help schools seeking accreditation broaden and deepen their assessment systems by accessing the voice of all stakeholders. In addition to showing evidence of a school's effort to achieve all five criteria, the surveys themselves are a safe, valid, effective, and reliable way to fulfill the Fourth Criterion's expectation that a school have a way for educators to "employ a variety of formative and summative assessments, including student self-assessments, to evaluate student learning [and to]...use these findings to differentiate the teaching/learning enhancement of the educational progress of every student."
