Recognition and Response – Rtl for Early Childhood Learners

www.recognitionandresponse.org

RecognitionandResponse.org is an online resource that provides educators with information about an Rtl approach to early education. This site offers information and resources to help early educators address the needs of young children (3 to 5 year-olds) who show signs that they may not be learning in an expected manner, even before they begin kindergarten.

Response to Intervention Resources - Rhode Island Technical Assistance

<http://www.ritap.org/rti/resources/presentations.php>

This website includes many resources and descriptions of what some Rhode Island schools are doing to develop their school-wide RTI model. It includes information on the Personal Literacy

Plan (PLP). The PLP is a plan of action for a teacher to use to bring a student to reading proficiency. It includes a problem-solving approach for improved student reading that is cyclical, inclusive (involves teachers, parents, administrators, etc.) and connects to the process of school improvement.

The Consortium on Reading Excellence (CORE)

<http://www.corelearn.com/>

This website includes technical assistance services and products to assist educators to build their own capacity for effective instruction by laying a foundation of research-based knowledge, supporting the use of proven tools, and developing literacy leadership.

The National Center for Culturally Responsive Education Systems (NCCRESt)

<http://www.nccrest.org>

NCCRES+ is a project funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Special Education Programs. It provides technical assistance and professional development to close the achievement gap between students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and their peers, and reduce inappropriate referrals to special education. The project targets improvement in culturally responsive practices, early intervention, literacy, and positive behavioral supports.
