WORKSHOP OFFERINGS

BE THE FIRST TO RECEIVE TRAINING ON THE MMPI-3!

This year, our first workshop day features a single track: Introduction to the MMPI-3; Day 2 offers three full-day tracks from which to choose. Workshop sessions begin at 9:00 a.m. & end at 5:00 p.m. each day.

Visit UPRESS.UMN.EDU/TEST-DIVISION/WORKSHOPS for a complete schedule & learning objectives.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17

NEW! INTRODUCTION TO THE MMPI-3:

This intermediate-level workshop introduces the MMPI-3, which is scheduled for publication in 2020. It is assumed that attendees will have graduate level training in psychological testing and assessment. (6 CE credits)

THURSDAY, JUNE 18

NEW! ADVANCED MMPI-3 INTERPRETATION:

This advanced-level workshop is designed for individuals who have completed the "Introduction to the MMPI-3" workshop. Attendees will further develop MMPI-3 interpretation knowledge & skills by acquiring greater familiarity with the normative changes and their implications for interpretation, the MMPI-3 Validity Scales & use of the MMPI-3 in diagnostic assessments. (6 CE credits)

NEW! FORENSIC APPLICATIONS OF THE MMPI-3:

This advanced-level workshop focuses on use of the MMPI-3 in forensic psychological evaluations, and is designed for individuals who have completed the "Introduction to the MMPI-3" workshop. Topics include general considerations when using the MMPI-3 in forensic evaluations, how to respond to admissibility challenges, use of the MMPI-3 in criminal court cases, use of the MMPI-3 in personal injury evaluations & use of the MMPI-3 in police and public safety suitability and fitness for duty evaluations. (6 CE credits)

USING THE MMPI-A-RF WITH ADOLESCENTS:

This workshop is an introduction to the MMPI-A-RF, and will cover the rationale for the development of the MMPI-A-RF, including the theoretical basis of the project. Interpretive strategy will be presented, and illustrated through the review of clinical case examples. (6 CE credits)

MMPI SYMPOSIUM

FRIDAY, JUNE 19 - SATURDAY, JUNE 20 55th ANNUAL MMPI SYMPOSIUM:

During the annual symposium, papers and poster presentations report the most recent studies on the MMPI instruments in research and clinical use. This two-day symposium offers 11 CE credit hours.

The 2020 MMPI Symposium will feature a keynote address by Dr. Kathleen M. Chard, Director of the Trauma Recovery Center at the Cincinnati VA Medical Center and Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Neuroscience at the University of Cincinnati.

SYMPOSIUM RATES: $125 (students & presenters); $225 (all other attendees).

CALL FOR PAPERS: Researchers and graduate students are encouraged to submit one (or more) of the following:

- Integrated Symposium: Consisting of 3-4 papers with an identified chair and discussant (90 minutes)
- Comprehensive Presentation: Comprehensive report and/or integration of research findings from multiple studies (30 minutes)
- Brief Report: Concise report of a single study (15 minutes)
- Poster: Poster-board based research report

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION PROCESS:

All presenters must submit a Proposal Submission Form and an abstract by Monday, March 16, 2020.

Authors will be notified of the status of their submission by late-April. A schedule of presentations and information about the meeting will be sent at a later date. Presenters receive a reduced registration fee ($125) that will cover attendance at all symposium sessions. Travel, housing, and other expenses are the responsibility of the presenter.

RECEPTION: All presenters and attendees are invited to attend a Friday evening reception beginning at 5:00 p.m., featuring complimentary appetizers and a cash bar.

For more information on the submission process or to download the Proposal Submission Form, visit z.umn.edu/2020MMPISymposium.
