Frequently Asked Questions

I'm having difficulty accessing my webcam

View the webcam settings of your computer. Check your webcam to confirm it is not blocked by anything that may obscure the view. If your network settings restrict access, you may need to add the Pearson Q-global domain to your approved websites.

Domain: qglobal.pearsonclinical.com

If you believe you are having hardware issues, try searching the internet for more detailed troubleshooting ideas specific to your desktop/laptop device.

What if my internet or computer crashes during the assessment?

If your computer or internet crashes during the administration, the assessment will pause while the issue is resolved. When you return to the session, the proctor can restart the assessment and you will continue at the point where the assessment stopped.

I've been waiting in the lobby for quite a long time. What do I do?

- If you do not receive a specific alert message, then please continue to wait. A proctor will be with you soon. Recheck the date and time to ensure the scheduled appointment.
- If you have waited for a considerable amount of time and still do not connect with a proctor, close the browser window and relaunch the session again with the e-mail link.
- If after relaunching the session and a proctor is still unavailable, close the browser window to end the session and contact your assessment administrator. The contact information is noted in the e-mail invitation.
