

WIAT®-4: Online Independent Study Program

Presented by Anne-Marie Kimbell, Ph.D. and Daniella Maglione, Psy.D.

Delivery method: On demand

Instructional level: Intermediate

Sponsored by NCS Pearson, Inc.

Overview

The fee-based, online, independent study curriculum provides detailed guidance for the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the Wechsler Individual Achievement Test® (4th ed.; WIAT-4). The final course of this curriculum includes how to score using the Q-global® platform. The curriculum consists of seven courses and is approximately 7.5 hours in length. This session is targeted for all users of the WIAT-4 who want to increase their knowledge of the measure via a self-paced module. This training can be purchased with CEs or without.

Learner Outcomes

After attending this independent study, participants will be able to:

1. Describe the WIAT-4 subtests
2. Describe administration directions for the WIAT-4 subtests
3. Discuss the scoring criteria for each subtest
4. Explain how to use the norms tables and the Q-global platform to derive standardized scores
5. Describe the link between skills analysis and instructional recommendations
6. Discuss the WIAT-4 interpretive process
